 15 am sure that -- but I don't remember.
 16 Q. Let me rephrase my question. These
 17 paychecks that you have in front of you, the pay
 18 stubs, reflect that you were paid by check for at 19 least some overtime hours; isn't that correct?
 20 A. Yes. They would give it to me on a
 21 check.
 22 Q. Okay. That's my question. Thank you.
 23 Do you understand what the term "time
 24 and a half" means?
 25 A. No.

 2 Q. So let me -- I'm trying to understand
 3 your testimony. Is your testimony that you
 4 received cash to compensate you for hours that you
 5 worked in addition to the hours that were
 6 compensated in your paycheck?
 7 A. Yes. Because that was when you went
 8 over the time. When you work seven days -- if you
 9 work more than seven days -- five days -- for 10 instance, if you work seven days, they would give 11 you 40 to $45 for that.
 12 Q. Who gave you the cash?
 13 A. Raj.
 14 Q. Isn't it true that some of the cash
 15 that you received was to compensate you for a
 16 lunch hour or a meal break during your shift?
 17 A. No, we never got breaks. There were no
 18 breaks.
 19 Q. Did you keep a record of the amount of
 20 cash that you received?
 21 A. The check. No, no. Now that you're
 22 mentioning cash -- no, no. There was no receipt,
 23 nothing.
 24 Q. Did you make any note of the amount of
 25 cash that you received?

 2 Would you like the interpreter to
 3 repeat to your witness the objection that
 4 you made?

5 MR. FAILLACE: I have asked her
 6 repeated times to do so, but she didn't
 7 do it.

8 MS. WHITE: Right now are you
 9 asking her?

10 MR. FAILLACE: I mean, she knows
 11 what to do. I don't have to repeat it to 12 her. She's a smart lady.

13 MS. WHITE: I'm going to ask the 14 interpreter to repeat -- if the court
 15 reporter could repeat back Mr. Faillace's
 16 first objection. And we will repeat it
 17 to the witness so that the witness hears
 18 all that is going on today.

19 (Record read.)

20 Q. Just to clarify, I'm not trying to 21 mischaracterize your testimony. I'm just trying 22 to understand. For the hours that you worked that 23 were not reflected on your paycheck, did you
 24 receive cash to compensate you for those hours?

25 MR. FAILLACE: Objection. Already

 2 answered.

3 Q. You can answer the question.
 4 A. On the seven days -- on the seven days
 5 you mean? They gave us 40 to 45.

6 Q. Previously your testimony was that you
 7 worked seven days in a week for a period of about
 8 four months; is that correct?

9 A. For eight to ten weeks we worked seven
 10 days a week.

11 Q. And in those weeks your testimony is 12 that you received 40 to $45 in cash for the extra
 13 time that you worked; is that correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Other than those eight to ten weeks
 16 that you were just testifying about, were you
 17 compensated for the hours that you worked?

18 A. No.

19 Q. What were you not compensated for?

20 A. The lunch time.

21 Q. Were you not compensated for anything
 22 else?

23 A. No.

24 Q. Thank you. Did you ever leave the 25 premises during a shift?

2 MR. FAILLACE: Objection. He
 3 already answered.

4 A. No.

5 Q. Did you ever take a meal break during
 6 your shift?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Did you ever eat while you were on your
 9 shift?

10 A. We eat like that. Running and working
 11 and eating, because it was very busy.

12 Q. Is it your testimony that you would eat
 13 food while you were working?

14 A. Every five minutes a car would come.
 15 So we would have to leave our food and take care
 16 of the car and go back. We had to leave our food
 17 and we had to run.

18 Q. Did you ever leave the premises to go
 19 get food?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Did you bring the food into work with 22 you?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Did anyone tell you that you were 25 entitled to a meal break?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Who told you that you were entitled to
 4 a meal break?

5 A. The same customers would tell me that I
 6 had a right to have a moment to eat.

7 Q. Did anyone at the company tell you that
 8 you are entitled to a meal break?

9 A. No. From the company, no. The 10 customers would.

11 MS. WHITE: I'm going to mark this
 12 as Luna Exhibit 3.

13 (Luna Exhibit 3, SP Payroll
 14 document, marked for identification, as 15 of this date.)

16 Q. Mr. Luna, if you'll take a look at the 17 document that is in front of you that has been 18 marked Exhibit 3. Is that your signature at the 19 bottom of the document?

20 A. Yes, that's my signature.

21 Q. Do you recognize what this document is?

22 A. No.

23 Q. Did you read this document before you
 24 signed it?

25 A. No.

 2 A. No.
 3 Q. When you worked at the garages at 155
 4 or 145, did you work with any other employees on
 5 your shift?
 6 A. Sometimes one person worked.
 7 Sometimes two. At 145, only two people worked.
 8 Q. What about at 155, how many --
 9 A. I've even worked alone at 145. At 155
 10 two of us worked, and sometimes three.
 11 Q. How often would you work by yourself at 12 145?
 13 A. I only worked there alone twice.
 14 Q. Have you ever paid another employee to 15 work a shift for you?
 16 A. No.
 17 Q. Has an employee ever paid you for 18 working a shift for them?
 19 A. No. Not even.
 20 Q. In this lawsuit, what is it that you're 21 claiming you were not paid for?
 22 A. First of all, they haven't paid me a
 23 lunch hour. One hour for every day that I worked
 24 that they used to take away.
 25 Q. Are you claiming that you weren't paid

 2 that they reduced my hours. I believe they
 3 reduced it because I complained about the hour.
 4 It was like a punishment.
 5 Q. When was it that your hours were
 6 reduced to 48 hours?
 7 A. That's when I was working. One time I
 8 called Pablo before I left. I called him to 9 explain to him that I was -- I was claiming the 10 hours that they owed me. And he told me he was 11 going to speak to Sam about it, but that they were 12 in no condition to pay those extra hours.
 13 Q. In what year did you make this
 14 complaint?
 15 A. I always complained about it, but it
 16 seems that at the end they punished me and lowered
 17 my hours.
 18 Q. Your hours were lowered to 48 hours for 19 only two weeks -- one to two weeks?
 20 MR. FAILLACE: Objection. Already
 21 answered.
 22 A. One or two weeks, yes.
 23 Q. Did your hours increase after those two 24 weeks to more than 48 hours a week?
 25 A. Then I started working regular, yes.

 2 for anything else other than your lunch hour?
 3 A. No, they did not pay me. And also
 4 according to law, after you work 10 hours they're
 5 supposed to pay one hour additional. They didn't
 6 pay that either. I always worked 12 hours.
 7 Q. Other than the lunch hour, and the 8 extra hour after working 10 hours, are there any 9 other hours of time that you're claiming you
 10 weren't paid for in this case?
 11 A. The extra hours worked after 40 hours a 12 week. I only received 15 to $20 to compensate for 13 that -- cash. Besides the check. The other hours
 14 were paid regular.
 15 Q. Were you paid at least minimum wage for 16 the first 40 hours that you worked each week?
 17 A. Minimum wage.
 18 Q. Did there come a time when your work
 19 schedule was reduced to 48 hours a week?
 20 A. I don't remember whether it was three
 21 or four days that I worked. Up to 48 hours.
 22 Q. Was there ever a time that your regular 23 schedule for each week was decreased to 48 hours
 24 per week?
 25 A. That only happened for one or two weeks

 2 Q. In what year was it that your hours --
 3 that for two weeks you worked 48 hours?
 4 A. 2006. That was like to placate me.
 5 Q. Immediately prior to your employment
 6 terminating in October of 2006, were you still
 7 working the seven p.m. to seven a.m. shift?
 8 A. Can you repeat the question?
 9 Q. I will rephrase. In October 2006 right
 10 before your employment terminated, what was your
 11 shift?
 12 A. Seven to seven.
 13 Q. Did you ever leave the work premises
 14 during a shift?
 15 A. I never left my job.
 16 Q. Did you ever take a break to eat a meal
 17 during your shift?
 18 A. Never took a break. I was always busy.
 19 Q. Did you ever see any of the other
 20 employees take a break during the shift?
 21 A. No. We were always taking care of the 22 vehicles. Whether it be giving them in, or 23 bringing them in -- receiving them, or giving them
 24 back. Cleaning the bathroom, garage area. It was 25 always busy. The parking lot where we were
